[illegible]

[illegible] I write you [illegible] lines and hold the glad [illegible]
hold excuse me as I can't come to Church Sunday [illegible] the account of a wedding I suppose my brother will get home Sunday coming to [illegible] Starkey and my cousin Mary Barrett will get married on Sunday evening at 5 o'clock to Mr. Lind. [illegible] which I would come to Church and stand if I could tell it I can [illegible] Farmer is [illegible] coming Sunday night [illegible] Hoddy Oil Cure [illegible] if I don't get to [illegible] I know you will have a [illegible] and if [illegible] is there I speak a good word to him for [illegible] Mary I [illegible] not be [illegible] I guess I had better close for I don't [illegible]
I can't it is [illegible] poor letter

[illegible]

at Church [illegible]

[illegible] your friend
